Free Screenings for Children 12 Months to 6 Years

Milestones is committed to providing families with the information and resources they need to promote learning within a healthy and educationally rich environment. We recognize that evidence-based early intervention is necessary for the development of social/emotional, academic, language, play, and self-care skills to address the developmental needs of children who have a special need.

How Free Screenings Work at Milestones Behavioral Services

1

Brief Interview, Questionnaire, and Observation

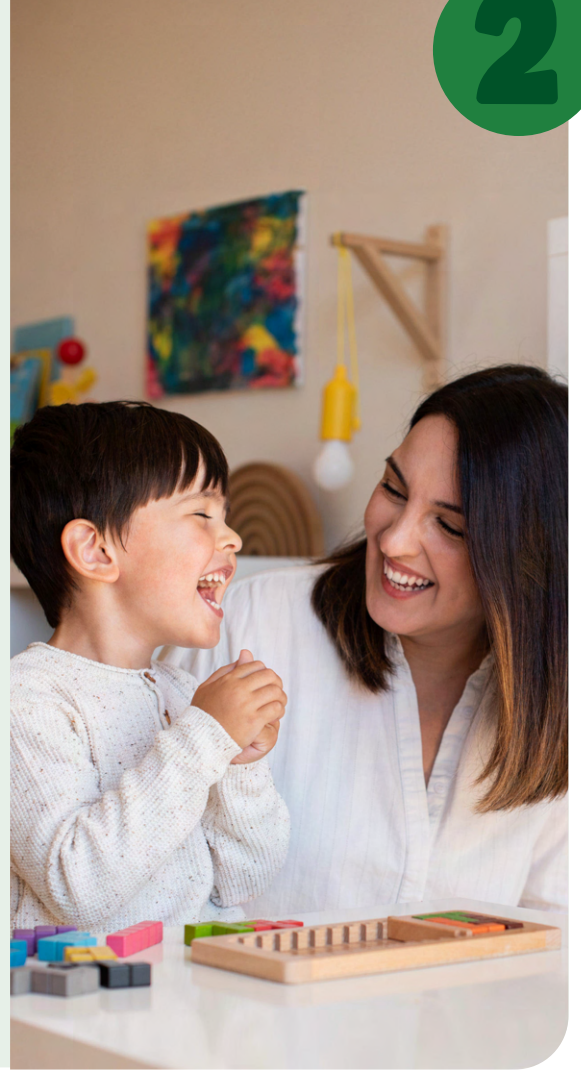

Free screenings take approximately 30 minutes and includes a brief interview with the primary caregiver, completion of a questionnaire, and a brief observation of the child.

Recommended Next Steps & Community Resources for Early Childhood Development

Based on the information obtained during the screening, families will be provided with recommended next steps for accessing community resources for further evaluation (if appropriate) and additional information including:

- Identifying Specialized Diagnosticians
- Interpreting Evaluation Recommendations
- Providing Resources Related to Early Childhood Development
- Determining Goals for Treatment

Support To Obtain Necessary Treatment

Our team of experts can provide support while it is determined if further evaluation is needed

While we do not offer comprehensive evaluations to diagnose autism spectrum disorder (ASD), we do offer free screenings to help identify if a comprehensive evaluation is a recommended next step.

Milestones' customized programs are flexible, allowing for creative strategies that teach important skills. Our staff works with each individual in a variety of settings to reach measurable goals in communication, social skills, play skills, education, and more. Each person's progress is tracked and monitored, and strategies are revised as needed to achieve the best outcomes possible.
